

Card Making

Pathfinder Honor

How to use this presentation to earn this honor:

Step 1: Download the honor worksheet

Step 2: Read the honor requirement

Step 3: Watch the YouTube video instructions attached to each slide

Step 4: Fill out and submit your worksheet!

Video Instructions

- Since we are currently in a very unique time, and some of the honor requirements may not be possible due to the current pandemic situation, we have come up with some alternative requirement suggestions. Watch the video here:

Honor Worksheets

- Fill out this worksheet and present it to your director to receive your patch. If you are not a member of a Pathfinder club, or if you have any questions about this honor, contact outreachfair@gmail.com.

1. How are the following supplies used in card making?

- a) card stock
- b) felt pens
- c) scissors (regular and decorative)
- d) embellishments
- e) rubber stamps
- f) watercolor, colored pencils & crayons
- g) ink pads
- h) punches

Idea:

Call another person in your unit or club and see if they would be your card making honor buddy. Share supplies if necessary, you can always arrange to leave them at each other's front door.

Idea:

Try making a “card” in a creative format with your scrapbook paper or gift wrap paper. Scrolls would be a unique way to send an uplifting message to an elderly person or a shut-in. They would be so happy to be remembered by a young person!

2. Describe how at least three of the following kinds of paper are used in card making:

- a) glossy card stock
- b) corrugated paper
- c) mulberry paper
- d) vellum
- e) scrapbook paper
- f) gift wrap

3. Name four different types of ink pads and describe how they are used. Demonstrate proficiency in using at least two of them in a practice project.

Idea:

Using your cell phone copy this image and send a message to the Pathfinder leaders of your club. See if they can direct you to someone, they know makes their own cards. Ask that person if you could borrow a stamp and pad, they could leave it by the door. Be sure to clean it before returning it. See requirement #8.

Monochromatic Wheel

Defined: Monochromatic color schemes are derived from a single base hue, and extended using its shades, tones and tints (that is, a hue modified by the addition of black, gray (black + white) and white. As a result, the energy is more subtle and peaceful due to a lack of contrast of hue. Monochromatic color schemes may be considered boring unless there is diversity within the design

9. Describe and demonstrate how to use at least two of the following in a practice project.

- a) foam dots (also squares, hexagons, etc.)
- b) foam tape
- c) double sided tape or squares
- d) tape/glue runners
- e) zots/clear glue dots
- f) washi tape

10. List at least five reasons for making cards.

Most Important reason:

You are letting people know they are valued and appreciated. What better way to let them know Pathfinders care about people!

11. Make cards to fulfill three of the reasons discovered in Requirement 10. During your card creation, demonstrate at least three of the following techniques:

- a) Monochromatic style
- b) sponging
- c) two types of coloring in a stamped image
- d) a card using at least two types of paper
- e) a card using embellishments, foam tape/dots, or other supplies mentioned in requirement 9.
- f) A card using a method of your choice

12. Do the following:

- a) Display your cards at a Pathfinder, AY, youth group, or similar event.
- b) Give at least one of your cards to someone else as part of a missions, share your faith, or similar outreach/caring event

13. Read the following passages (preferably with a group/unit) and discuss the similarities / differences between these letter greetings and modern day greeting cards:

- a. 1 Corinthians 15:58
- b. Ephesians 6:21
- c. Philippians 4:1
- d. James 1:16, 19
- e. Philemon 1:1

Idea:

Call another member of your Pathfinder club and discuss the verses. It will make it more interesting to get another person's reaction to the Biblical greetings.
